

Abstract

Title: Public opinion on the construction of the National Olympic Center in Nymburk

Objectives: The main objective of this thesis is to determine public opinion in Nymburk and the surrounding municipalities on the intended construction of the National Olympic Center in Nymburk, based on own survey.

Methods: Research method used in this thesis is a quantitative method of research – interviewing. Own questionnaire of author was drawn up to determine public opinion on the construction of the National Olympic Center in Nymburk.

Results: Based on the data obtained, it was found out that the public opinion on the construction of the National Olympic Center is largely positive. The public is open to this project, people want a modern sport center and support its construction despite the expensive and scope of the project and.

Keywords: public opinion, the National Olympic Center, Sports Center in Nymburk, written interviewing, electronic interviewing